General Information

The Grace Cottage Cultural & Educational Development Foundation, Kakching, was founded in 2006. It is the first and only CBSE School in Kakching. It is a co-educational English medium school that serves children from pre-school stage up to Xth standard.

The campus of the school is located in the south eastern part of Kakching on Pallel - Mantak Road popularly known as Louyai Lambi. It has a total area of 2.465 acres. It is a clean and spacious campus. It is also adorned with beautiful trees and flowers. You will find our campus beautiful. We sincerely believe that our campus will be conducive for your child to learn and grow.

The school is run by experienced and well-qualified teachers. Many of the teachers have invested a significant portion of their life in teaching. They are committed to work with every child and help them learn. We are confident that your child will be well-served by our teachers.

New Academic Session 2019-20 will start from 7th February, Thursday-2019.
